Grand Jury Passes Probe of State Affairs to Its Successor

JURORS SAY DISPOSITION IMPRACTICAL

Travis County Grand Jury Which Convenes December 7 Will Continue Investigation of Alleged State Irregularities Pertaining to Highways.

Austin, Nov. 28.—(A-P)—The Travis County Grand Jury which has investigated state affairs for two months passed "such matters as have appeared impractical of final disposition at this time," for consideration of the next grand jury. It submitted its report at noon this being the last day of its term.

The report to Judge J. R. Hamilton of the Travis County Criminal District Court was very brief, and after saying "all jail cases" referred to it had been disposed of, read:

"Such matters as have appeared impractical of final disposition at this time have been passed for the consideration of the next grand jury."

"Such record testimony as has been taken and transcribed under our direction has been delivered by us into the custody of the proper officer of this court and we now stand ready to adjourn."

District Attorney Moore said that frequently grand juries pass their findings on to following grand juries, where they appear incomplete.

"In many instances," Moore said, "witnesses and accomplices cannot be brought before the grand jury because they are not in the state, and the grand jury finds it necessary to pass the matter over to its successor. He pointed to the paragraph in the grand jury's report which said that some matters appear impractical of final disposition at this time, and said "this report covers the matter."

The panel has been drawn for the new jury to convene on December 7.

PRECAUTION IN CASHING OF CHECKS IS URGED

Crime is on the increase in Wilbarger County, according to the final report made Friday by the Grand Jury of the 40th District Court of Wilbarger County. The final report contained ten felony indictments, making an aggregate of twenty-seven indictments found and returned during this term of court.

The grand jury's final report calls attention to the new traffic law in Vernon, pointing out that while a few observe the stop signals many do not. The grand jury suggests that county and city officials unite in enforcing the city safety regulations to the letter.

The grand jury's report follows: "Hon. Robert Cole, District Judge, 'Dear Sir: 'We the grand jury empaneled for the October term of the District Court of Wilbarger County, Texas, have heretofore submitted 17 indictments, making an aggregate of 27 indictments found and returned at this term of the court."

"We have been in session five days and have to the best of our ability investigated all violations of the law brought to our attention or known to our body and we find that crime appears to be on the increase, especially the offenses of passing and making forged checks. Merchants and citizens cashing checks should take extra precautions in handling instruments of this nature."

"Another particular violation of the law, and especially the city ordinance of Vernon is the traffic law. The City of Vernon has installed a number of stop signals in the city limits and main streets of town and while some few observe these signals, yet a great number do not. It is our suggestion that all of the peace officers, both of the city and county, should combine together and do all in their power to strictly enforce these safety regulations because they are there for the safety of the public and all violators should be impressively handled by the authorities."

"We have finished our labors and beg that we be excused. 'Respectfully submitted: 'F. H. WRIGHT, 'Foreman Grand Jury."

Bandit Gang Terrorizes Town

The town of Cassopolis, Mich., was under the sway of four bandits for three hours while the criminals made a desperate but futile attempt to blow the safe in the First National Bank. Driving every one off the street with shots, they set off six charges in the bank, but finally fled without getting anything except $400 in postage stamps. Above shows how the windows of the bank were wrecked by the explosion; below, how the interior suffered.

OFFICER COURT MARTIAL AND REID GET IN ROW

Washington, Nov. 28.—(A-P)—A new tension hung over the Mitchell court martial proceedings today as most of the court sought diversion from the stormy atmosphere by taking in the Army and Navy football game during a week-end adjournment.

The row between Brigadier General Edward L. King, a member of the court, and Representative Frank R. Reid of Illinois, chief defense counsel, has produced more troubled waters for the tribunal and the sequel is yet to be recorded.

Meanwhile the Navy department has decided that the Shenandoah court of inquiry is not to be reconvened for the purpose of recalling witnesses for cross-examination by counsel for Mrs. Zachary Lansdowne in connection with her charges that Captain Paul Foley, former Judge Advocate of the court, attempted to influence her testimony before the court.

As to the Mitchell trial episode of yesterday, Representative Reid declared later that he would be satisfied to move to strike from the record when court convenes Monday, all references to the incident in which remarks by General King overheard by the defense counsel caused him to turn sharply on a court member with exclamation:

"No, this is not damn rot and I object."

The incident occurred as Mr. Reid was cross-examining Major Jarvis J. Bain, one of the two prosecution witnesses presented yesterday. King explained that he was "merely talking to another member of the court."

"I don't care who you were talking to," hotly returned Mr. Reid, who added he wanted it "in the record."

OFFERS REWARD OF $500 FOR ARREST AND CONVICTION OF RICH LIQUOR LAW VIOLATORS

Austin, Nov. 28.—(A-P)—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson issued a proclamation today offering a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of any citizen of Texas for violating the liquor laws, who is worth in property or money as much as $5,000. She said the funds at her command are limited, "but I will use every cent available to continue this reward."

She scored millionaires and wealthy persons for their liquor hoardings and possessions, and pitied the poor folks of small means who are being sent to the penitentiary for liquor law violations.

The Governor said when such conditions existed justice becomes a mockery and the law becomes a stench in the nostrils of all law-abiding people. Declaring that she was not undertaking to justify the poor in the violation of the liquor law, she called on officers from the bench down to put the same law in force against the rich that "is now being put in force against the poor."

Justice Is Mockery. "The enforcement of the liquor laws in Texas has become the enforcement of the law against the poor and for the rich," the proclamation reads.

"If the rich of this country were not patronizing so many bootleggers and aiding and abetting them to violate the law, the bootleggers would have to go out of business for the want of business. If those who are so prone to criticize my administration for lack of enforcement of the liquor laws are sincere in their charge, I now tender them an opportunity to join me in the arrest and detection of those who are to be most blamed for violating the liquor laws."

Work of Chicago's Bombing Trust Is Told By Director

Chicago, Nov. 28.—(A-P)—Details of the workings of Chicago's bombing "trust" which wrecked barber shops, policemen's homes and smashed windows at rates ranging from $50 to $400 have been revealed in a confession prosecutor says was made by Joseph M. Sangerman, named as the director.

Sangerman is a manufacturer of barber's supplies and a barber's union official. His story has implicated five others including Mrs. Lena Shrock Rice, Chicago's first woman barber, who carried out his orders.

Robert E. Crowe, State's Attorney, plans to charge them with five bombings and three window smashings at once, to forestall habeas corpus proceedings for their release, and to lay the result of his inquiry before a special grand jury meeting on Monday. Union officials and victims of bombings will be questioned.

Besides Sangerman, confessions have been made by Mrs. Rice, Fred Wanquist, arrested with her as they fled after planting explosives which wrecked a hardware store, Louis D'Andrea, a bomber, and Jack Davis, a bomb maker, according to Mr. Crowe. Jose Avanzio, caught with Wanquist and the woman, also, is held.

The prosecutor said Sangerman never went on the bombing trips but pointed out the places he sought to destroy before hand. For wrecking a hotel-barber shop he paid $400; for a suburban shop $200 and $150 for another on the north side. For window smashings the State's Attorney said the fee was $50.

A raid yesterday on a flat where Wanquist and the woman lived revealed dynamite sticks, fuses and detonating caps.

A. A. A. FAVORS STATE PATROL OF HIGHWAYS

Washington, Nov. 28.—(A-P)—The American Automobile Association announced today that it would support a program of placing all main highways of the country under state road patrols and abolishing the fee system of arrests in order to "rid motorism of its worst infestation, the speed trap and the roadside court."

Thomas P. Henry, president of the association, said a survey conducted through its 750 associated clubs has "proven conclusively that there is virtually no enforcement by justice of the peace courts and that a system of arrests based on corruption, of fees is honeycombed with evasion."

Other recommendations of the program are that arrests be based on reckless driving rather than "technical" violations, and that evidence obtained by "speed traps" be barred by law.

Landreth Pays $30,000 for Twenty Acre Oil Lease

The Landreth Production Corporation closed a deal Saturday morning for the twenty-acre lease of Powers and Walker in section 42, block 4, near the old Noble well, according to Miss Barbara Powers, one of the owners of the lease. The consideration was $30,000 cash and the corporation purchased the rig which is on the lease.

Miss Powers several weeks ago, purchased a drilling site of ten acres from the Waggoner Estate and was joined a short time later by Tom Walker, another oil operator, who added the extra ten acres to make the lease. They prepared to drill in the heart of the Landreth lease. They were ready to commence operations on a test offsetting the Milham 1-A, when the corporation made them an offer to sell out at their own price.

Miss Powers, of Breckenridge, is another woman to try the oil game in Wilbarger County, and she hopes to become as famous as Miss Thelma Wells, who helped bring in the discovery pool by her famous wild cat. Miss Powers is interested in a wild cat, which is drilling at a last reported depth of 2,400 feet on the Peter Servatius tract, section 78, block 14 and was one of the prime movers in securing the acreage.

The plucky woman operator intends starting another well soon, near her shack on the Sevatus lands.

AS SPAGHETTI PRICES SOAR ITALY'S PATRIOTISM IS TESTED

Rome, Nov. 28.—(A-P)—Wounds of war scarcely could be more painful than wounds of peace which are coming to Italians in the form of restricted rations of spaghetti, macaroni and ravioli, those pillars of the Cis-Alpine cuisine.

With Italy making an effort to rid itself of the need of wheat imports by the erection of tariff walls, the domestic supply as yet is insufficient. As a result, prices of spaghetti and other food pastes have soared to such prohibitive heights that vast numbers of people are forced to reduce their rations.

MASKED MEN KILL FARMERS REVIVAL CROWD ENJOYS SERMON

MYSTERIOUS GUNMEN ENTER ROADHOUSE AND FIRE TWO SHOTS. SUNDAY'S SERVICES EXPECTED TO BE GREATEST OF CAMPAIGN.

Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., Nov. 28.—Two mysterious masked gunmen stalked into a roadhouse half a mile from this city last night and shot two men as they sat listening to a concert. R. A. Davis, a farmer, was killed instantly.

William Bauer, also a farmer, was shot in the abdomen and was not expected to live. The killers challenged their intended victims before firing.

"Davis, we want you," calmly announced the taller of the two. Then he fired from the hip.

"Bauer, you're next," said the other as he fired.

The gunmen then backed out and escaped in an automobile. Frank Flatoff, proprietor of the roadhouse, was sitting between Davis and Bauer when the killers began shooting.

Mystery was added to the case by the fact that apparently Bauer and Davis were strangers.

Bauer declared he had never seen Davis until last night, when he met him at the roadhouse. Robbery was not attempted.

Germany Ratifies Peace Treaties of Locarno Meet

Berlin, Nov. 28.—(A-P)—Germany has written the peace treaties of Locarno on her statute books and now hopes for an era of good will so far as her relations with her western and eastern neighbors are concerned.

President Von Hindenburg signed the bill today and Chancellor Luther and Foreign Secretary Stresemann will depart for London tomorrow to present and with the representatives of the other interested countries officially sign the documents.

The option of the Locarno bill 219 to 174 in the Reichstag late yesterday, was due to the widespread conviction that economic expediency made ratification indispensable.

The enactment of the bill will enable Germany to enter the League of Nations.

Although the Locarno treaties were initiated by the various delegates to the conference October 16, only the British Parliament and the German Reichstag have thus far ratified them. The other nations which are yet to ratify them prior to their signature in London next Tuesday are France, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Italy and Poland.

Chapman Writes Own Defense To Escape Gallows

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 28.—(A-P)—Relieved from the gallows for three months by Governor Trumbull, Gerald Chapman, mail bandit convicted of murdering a policeman, is acting as one of the lawyers for himself.

In a five page brief written with pen and ink in his cell and bristling with legal terms, he contends that President Coolidge has "immorally and unlawfully" employed the commutative power as an instrument of force.

The President has commuted Chapman's sentence of 25 years to Atlanta prison for robbing the mails in New York in order that Chapman may hang in Connecticut for killing a policeman after he had escaped from Atlanta.

Chapman's lawyers plan to go as far as the United States Supreme Court if necessary, to prove that he first should serve his Federal sentence before being executed in Connecticut.

Chapman was sentenced to die next Thursday, but the Governor yesterday reprieved him until March because of habeas corpus proceedings which will be argued in Federal District Court Monday.

WANT MORE USED CLOTHES

BOY SCOUTS WILL CALL FOR BUNDLES OF OLD CLOTHING.

Though a large amount of used clothing was secured in the "old clothes" drive conducted by the Boy Scouts the day of the drive, there were probably many who had bundles of clothing ready or who prepared bundles later that have not been visited.

G. L. Taylor, scout master, who had charge of the drive for the Lions, requests that any who have clothing to contribute telephone him at 134. McKinney's Store, a Boy Scout will be sent for the bundle. Practically every kind of clothing is needed, he says.

Those preferring to deliver their bundles should take them to the basement of the Presbyterian Church to Dr. E. L. Moore, chairman of the Welfare Association, to whom the Lions will turn over all contributions they secure.

Leon Brown and G. L. Taylor both expressed their appreciation to the citizens who contributed during the clothes drive, and both stated they hoped that a much larger supply would yet be contributed as receipts were insufficient to care for the Welfare Association needs.

Satterwhite and Moody Seek Chair Ferguson States

Austin, Texas, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The question of who is the Governor of Texas and who got a thorough airing in statements cropping out last night in the general upheaval centering about the demanded special session of the legislature. In the meantime, the Texas capital still was wondering from which source the special session call would come—the governor's office, or Speaker of the House Satterwhite and 58 supporting representatives who in an ultimatum have given the Governor until December 10 to convene the Legislature.

Speaker Satterwhite declared yesterday that Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, in her executive acts, proceeded at the behest of her husband and adviser, former Governor James E. Ferguson.

This statement was made to Texas newspaper men. Correspondents of New York papers, however, got a closer slant on the question. The Texas reports were barred and told that the Governor had nothing to say.

Special dispatches to the Gotham journals say their correspondents learned that James E. Ferguson, who received them, is the "real Governor" of Texas. The dispatches say the former Governor, whose administration ended in impeachment, "tacitly admitted" that he is the ruler.

Ferguson is quoted as having attacked the earlier intimation of Speaker Satterwhite that the Legislature would not be reluctant in possible impeachment proceedings because the Governor is a woman, charging that Satterwhite is motivated by political ambitions.

After he had ministered to the wants of the visiting newspaper men, Mr. Ferguson had a talk with local newspapermen and told them that "men with political bees in their bonnets" are responsible for the special session agitation. He included in the group "disgruntled contractors and county commissioners who have lost their clatter on highway contracts."

The former Governor reviewed his recent challenge to the dissatisfied to the "whisper to the grand jury" and rounded out his statement with the avowal that Attorney General Moody and Speaker Satterwhite have their eyes on the Governor's chair. He declined to say what the Governor will do about the special session demanded for "impeachments" and investigations. Neither would he say whether she will run for re-election.

Mr. Moody returned last night from Washington and Monday will begin in District Court suit against the Hoffman Construction Company for cancellation of state highway contracts and restitution of more than a quarter of a million dollars alleged excess profits. The case is of the same general nature as the one in which another company was forced out of business and made to restore $600,000 to the state.

Further interest in the highway situation was injected by an announcement in Washington last night that the Federal Government would inquire into Government road aid in this state. Thomas H. MacDonald, chief of the Bureau of Public Roads, United States Department of Agriculture, said he would send P. St. J. Wilson, the bureau's chief engineer and W. J. O'Leary, his assistant to Texas today. He understood that Federal funds were not involved in the highway controversy, but said he was sending them on the mission because of the "intense interest" on the part of the public in the Lone Star situation.

Teachers Protest Commercialism in School Athletics

Dallas, Nov. 22.—(AP)—Commercialization of organized school athletics in Texas was denounced and teachers cautioned to check "this evil tendency" in resolutions adopted by the Texas State Teachers' Association here today.

Comment on athletics shared a large part of today's program. Two resolutions were passed, one denouncing the alleged commercialization tendency of athletics, and the other stating that athletics is being over-emphasized, while one of the principal speeches followed the same subject. Eugene T. Lies of Chicago, representing the Playground and Recreation Association of America, made a plea for organized play for all children, stating that America's world leadership depended on how the youth is taught to play.

An adequate physical education program for all school pupils, instead of intensified training for a few stars, was advocated by the association, which recommended that the State Department of Education and the State Board of Education immediately work out plans for institution of this program.

The convention asked for support for the proposed constitutional amendment to be voted on at next fall's election taking away the Legislature's right to form special school districts and placing this power in the hands of the school district voters.

Officers elected at yesterday's balloting were officially announced today as follows: President, J. M. Bledsoe, Commerce; first vice president, Carl A. Gardner, Fort Worth; second vice president, P. E. McDonald, Denton.

The term of R. E. Ellis, secretary, Fort Worth, continues another year. A suggestion to erect a $500,000 office building in Dallas for use of the association was discussed by the executive committee. The committee authorized a financial company to work out detailed plans and specifications and present them at the next meeting of the committee in January.

A full investigation of college athletics has been authorized by the Association of Texas Colleges, which has appointed a commission for the purpose.

A. E. Chandler, of the East Texas State Teachers' Convention, chairman of the commission, outlined the following eight divisions which the investigation is to follow: The average number of days an athlete is kept from school on account of sporting events; the entrance credits and requirements of an athlete; number of athletes who had attended other schools and were secured to play football or other sports; salaries of coaches compared to salaries of professors; the financial control of athletics; loans made to athletes so they might attend school to play football; deficit of profit of athletics and the purity and wholesomeness of athletics.

Report on these points is to be made at the spring meeting of the association.

Built for Rough Roads Better BUICK Closed Cars

Extra sturdiness is an outstanding feature of Buick motor cars. Buick closed cars demonstrate this most strikingly in cross-country travel.

Town or country, good roads or bad, it's all the same to a Buick. You can go anywhere any car can go and do it much easier because of the famous, 75 horsepower, Buick Valve-in-Head engine.

You can travel long distances in more comfort because of the deep, wide, luxurious seats, the extra head and leg room, and full cantilever rear springs. And Buick's ball bearing, worm and nut steering mechanism removes all driving strain. This is the most efficient and most expensive steering gear so far perfected.

Better Buick closed models are now on display. Your attention is particularly directed to the 4-door and 2-door Fisher Body Sedans at "Coach" prices!

THE TURKS ARE STILL WITH US

The German Reichstag has ratified the peace treaties of Locarno, hailed by the statesmen of the world as the greatest step toward lasting peace ever taken by the great powers, and has voted to accept membership in the League of Nations.
These things do not necessarily mean that we have found a way to keep the peace of the world. Human selfishness must be choked down before that is possible. They do not necessarily mean that Germany has reformed and will make a good neighbor. But it does mark a new attitude in both Germany and among the other nations of Europe. These two things mean that the statesmen of Germany have gone as far as they can now go to emphasize the desire for peace and to work for the fruition of that hope.

The decision of the Reichstag is interesting to Americans from another standpoint. The accession of Germany as a member of the League of Nations will unquestionably strengthen the position of that organization for world peace. As long as Germany remained outside the League she was a menace to the perpetuity of the League.

The League has long since demonstrated its right to existence. More than one threatening situation has been ironed out. More than one struggling baby nation, brought into being by the Treaty of Versailles, has been nurtured into vigorous health through the good offices of the League. Hope has displaced despair in certain Balkan nations, because the League extended a helping hand, endorsed loans and generally supervised the reconstruction of that war-torn region.

All this has happened in spite of the predictions of failure, made by some of our own irreconcilables. All this has happened, in spite of the fact that America, where the League idea had its origin, remained outside the organization.

The admission of Germany will make the United States more lonely than she has ever been. Our isolationists may wish to keep out of Europe's troubles, but the fact remains that it is just as impossible for this country to remain aloof from world affairs as it is for a citizen of Vernon to be unconcerned about a smallpox epidemic at Oklahoma. We had no alliances with any European power in 1917. We had pledged our support to no power on earth. We had not meddled with the affairs of Europe. But we couldn't stay out of the World War. And we can't stay out of the next one, if it ever comes. Our best hope is to accept our responsibility as a nation and support every move which has world peace for its object.

We may take whatever comfort we can from the knowledge, however, that such great nations as Turkey, Afghanistan and Mexico are, like the United States, still not members of the League of Nations. Truly, truly, politics of the Borah-Lodge-Reed variety brings about strange bed fellows.

RAILROADS ARE ESSENTIAL

The Denton Record-Chronicle, in commenting on the published report of the year's business of the Dallas-Denton interurban line, suggests that the managers of the line might have decreased the deficit for the first year's operation by adopting measures to popularize their service. Reduced round trip fares between the cities on legitimate occasions were suggested as a possible move in that direction.

Unquestionably the railroads, both electric and steam, are big factors in our modern economic life. No community can make much progress unless it is served by one or both of these methods of transportation. It is also certain that the growth of motor transportation, hastened by the general improvement of highways, has cut a tremendous slice out of railroad earnings.

Many people have very foolishly, The Record believes, given undue preference and encouragement to motor transportation, but in this they have been seduced no little by the railroads themselves. This is fast age. Communication must be quick and safe. Rates must be reasonable. The railroads have been slow to sense the needs of the communities they serve. They have stupidly insisted upon higher and higher rates and offered little or no improvement in service. They have failed to make friends. In this respect, one need only to recall the lack of ordinary conveniences in the average small town stations—Vernon included, to discover some of the reasons for hostility toward railroads.

In the old days, railroads popularized their service by low excursion rates. They made friends and got people in the habit of using the railroads. A sort of public-be-damned attitude has been assumed in the past few years, with the excuse that the Government has tied the hands of railroad managers through undue regulation and restriction. But it is doubtful if Government stupidity has outrun railroad stupidity. But on top of all this, the community that encourages motor transportation at the cost of crippling railroad service is worse than stupid. It is committing suicide.

FRENCH HUMOR STILL HOLDS SWAY IN PARIS LATIN QUARTER

sic halls, which are filled with Americans anxious to see Paris at its full height of naughtiness, are missing in the Latin Quarter shows.
But what they lack in the way of slightly clad dancers, the cabarets make up in the suggestiveness of lines in many of the songs and monologues. The humor, however, is lost on listeners without a thorough knowledge of French, and it is for this reason that tourists seldom find their way here.

Briand Announces Members of New French Cabinet

Paris, Nov. 28.—(AP)—France's seven day ministerial crisis is ended. Leaving the Elysee Palace after a conference with President Doumergue, Aristide Briand, the President's Premier-designate, confirmed the following as the cabinet which he would present to the President this afternoon.

Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs—Aristide Briand; Minister of Justice—René Bonoult; Interior—Maurice Clautiaux; Finance—Louis Loucheur; War—Paul Painlevé; Navy—Georges Lygues; Public Instruction—Edouard Deladier; Commerce—Daniel Vincent; Public Works—Antoine De Monzie; Hygiene—Antoine Durafour; Pensions—Paul Jourdain; Agriculture—Jean Durand; Colonies—Leon Ferrier.

The new cabinet, although falling short of the great concentration of all parties hoped for in many quarters to face the precarious financial situation, is composed of the safest elements in parliament and is the most moderate body of ministers assembled since the selections of May 1924.

The complete elimination of extremists, both the Communists and Socialists of the Left and the Nationalists of the Right, is one of its features.

Acceptance of the finance portfolio by Louis Loucheur has aroused interest in financial circles. Loucheur is known to be a man of daring financial and economic conceptions, and his activities as France's cashier will be watched with great attention.

Washington, Nov. 28.—(AP)—The minority report on Muscle Shoals was submitted today to President Coolidge by Professor Harry A. Curtis of Yale, one of the two members of the investigating commission, who declined to approve findings of the majority.

Professor Curtis called at the White House and left the report with Secretary Sanders, who immediately laid it before the President. The other minority member is William McClellan of New York.

President Coolidge has indicated that he will make the majority and minority views public before their transmission to Congress.

Body of Queen Mother Taken To Windsor Castle

Windsor, Eng., Nov. 28.—(AP)—England's Queen Mother was brought home to rest among the tombs of the kings at Windsor this morning.

While London slept Alexandra's body was taken from Westminster Abbey where the funeral services were held yesterday and conveyed by motor hearse to this, the most beautiful of all the royal castles in England.

As the procession entered the palace grounds, the sun's rays flashed on the flag draped coffin and brought into strong relief the gray, snow-capped towers of the ancient home of royalty.

The casket was placed on a catafalque below the steps of the altar in St. George's Chapel where it will rest amidst a profusion of flowers until a sarcophagus is prepared beside that of Alexandra's husband, Edward VII.

At 11:50 o'clock a simple private committal service was held, with all the royal family present. The ancient cloister, abutting the royal chapel was filled with wreaths from parts of the world; not since the funerals of Victoria and Edward VII has such a magnificent collection of choice flowers been seen.

REALISM INVADES RANKS OF FRISCO CHINATOWN THEATERS

San Francisco, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Realism has invaded San Francisco's Chinatown theaters.

In a stage play called "The Golden Butterfly," a motion picture showing a river was introduced as part of the scenery. The actors stood back of the screen, appearing to be on the banks of the stream as they spoke their lines in Cantonese.

The hero, hard pressed by his enemies, feigns to have been killed, but when they approach his body, he suddenly hurls them into the river. The new version was so skillfully handled that the villains appeared to have disappeared under the swirling waters of the screen.

MOVIES FLUCTUATE LIKE FIGURES ON STOCK MARKET

New York, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Feeling as pinch of industrial disputes and the seasonal vagaries of the weather, the number of motion picture theaters in the United States fluctuates much as do the figures on the stock market.

The show houses of the industry have been counted, however, and the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America placed the November total at 29,415. At the same time, figures were released showing that upwards of twenty million people visit these theatres daily.

Harold Hamlin, 23, bell boy in an Omaha (Neb.) hotel, surprised society by eloping with Isabel Rich, 21, daughter of a wealthy Grand Island (Neb.) physician. Her father tried in vain to prevent the marriage but failed. Now Hamlin asserts that the father, 40 years ago, worked as a bell boy himself.

"DEATH VALLEY" SCOTT DESERTS GOLD NUGGETS FOR FRUIT

Tonopah, Nev., Nov. 28.—(AP)—Walter Scott, better known as "Death Valley Scotty," is becoming almost as famous for the products of his Rancho Inferno, near Grapevine canyon in Death Valley, California, as he was a few days ago for the gold nuggets he displayed so lavishly and made such a mystery of.

John G. Kirchen, Nevada mining man, has visited Scotty's ranch "down in the bottom of the world."

"Scotty," said Kirchen, "is as much a mystery as ever. He is producing huge quantities of figs, apples, pears, peaches and grapes, the latter of unsurpassing quality. He treated us royally, talked a lot and told us nothing."

Scotty still insists that he has the richest gold mine in the world somewhere in the recesses of the sinister

By Associated Press Leased Wire

COTTON.

Texas.
Dallas, Nov. 28.—Spot cotton 19.80; Houston 20.40; Galveston 20.50.

Chicago.
Chicago, Nov. 28.—Cotton closed 16 to 40 points lower, December 19.90; January 19.80; March 19.45; May 19.25; July 18.65.

New York.
New York, Nov. 28.—Cotton futures opened steady, December 20.78; January 20.08; March 19.97; May 19.53; July 18.13.

The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 3 to 12 points. The relatively steady showing of Liverpool and confirmation of yesterday's reports that Lancashire spinners had rejected increased curtailment proposals, had apparently little effect. Some buying was readily supplied by overnight selling orders from the South and elsewhere and bearish sentiment seemed to be encouraged by expectations of a continued large movement in view of the favorable weather.

January sold off to 19.90 and May 19.50 by the end of the first hour, or about 13 to 18 points net lower.

Southern hedge selling added to the pressure toward the close and with rather liberal offerings from Wall Street sources, forced prices off further. The market finally was at low levels of the day and 15 to 34 points under the previous close.

Cotton futures closed barely steady at net decline of 18 to 34 points.

New Orleans.
New Orleans, Nov. 28.—Cotton futures opened steady; December 19.81; January 19.75; March 19.38; May 19.01; July 18.06.

The cotton market opened easier despite fairly good cables. First trades showed losses of 3 to 14 points. Prices eased off further after the call mainly on good weather shown by the map over the belt which is expected to aid harvesting and ginning. January traded down to 19.64, March to 19.33 and May to 19.01. The undertone was bearish.

The market continued to ease off gradually all through the short session owing to liquidation by longs. The December notices issued early are said to be for about 2,900 bales, were reported to be still circulating at least a portion of them, which increased the disposition of longs to liquidate as considerable buying had been done earlier in the week on the belief that no December notices would be issued locally. New lows were made right at the end. January trading down to 19.51, March to 19.21 and May to 18.94. The market closed at the bottom, showing net losses for the day of 16 to 29 points.

Cotton futures closed barely steady at net decline of 18 to 29 points.

Spot cotton closed steady, 23 points down. Sales 4,539; new middlings 17.29; middling 19.76; good middling 20.76; receipts 18,129; stock 439,865.

Chicago.
Chicago, Nov. 28.—(A)—Poultry, alive, steady; fowls 17 to 24; springs 24; turkeys 32; roosters 15 1-2; ducks 18 to 20; geese 17c.

GRAIN.

Chicago.
Chicago, Nov. 28.—(A)—Notwithstanding decline at the start, wheat prices today soon showed a fresh upward trend. Initial setbacks were ascribed to downturns in Liverpool quotations. Chicago opening prices, 3-8 to 1 3-4 lower, new style, December 1.64 3-8 to 1.64 5-8 and May 1.60 to 1.60 3-4, were followed by a rise to 1.66 1-2 for December and 1.62 5-8 for May.

Corn and oats swayed with wheat. After opening 1-8 to 1-4 down, December 72 5-8 to 72c, corn recovered all of the loss.

Oats started a shade to 1-8 to 1-4 off, May 38 1-2 to 38 5-8, sagged a trifle more than rallied.

Provisions were responsive to low quotations on hogs.

Fat cattle rates displayed a steady trend today and the few cars on offer went over the scales early. Cows sold mostly within the 2.50 to 3.85 spread but a few drafts ranged up to 4.50. Heifers brought 3.50 to 5.50, quality being trashy. A sale or two of bulls was made at 2.50 to 3.25.

"EAST LYNNE" FOR TWO DAYS AT PICTORIUM

One of the greatest casts ever collected in a screen production has been assembled by William Fox for his version of "East Lynne," which opens Monday for a two-day run at the Pictorium.

Edmund Lowe, long a Fox star and entrusted with the leading role in many of the most notable successes of this company, plays Archibald Carlyle, the hero in "East Lynne," while Alma Rubens, one of the most beautiful women on the screen and star of many big productions, is cast as the ill-fated Lady Isabel.

Lou Tellegen, for years a star of the French and American stage and more lately a star of the film, is playing the "heavy" role of Sir Francis Levison, a part which gives him plenty of opportunity for his varied talents.

Then there is Frank Keenan, sterling character actor and leading man of the stage and screen for many years. Mr. Keenan, who always lends a fine dignity to any role he undertakes, has a part admirably suited to him as Chief Justice Hare in "East Lynne."

Marjorie Daw, who has played leading roles in many pictures, is cast in "East Lynne," as Barbara Hare. It is a part that affords her wide play for her vivacity and beauty, to say nothing of her talent as an actress.

Lydia Knott, one of the best "mothers" on the screen; Leslie Fenton, a comparative newcomer to films from the stage, but destined to

STOCKS-BONDS.

New York.
New York, Nov. 28.—(A)—Stock prices turned reactionary after an early display of strength in today's market. The selling presumably was inspired by the speculative belief that the immediate requirements of the short interest had been met and that orders from so-called "bargain hunters" had not come up to expectation, considering the drastic nature of the recent decline. Motors, which had registered the sharpest recoveries, were offered in large volumes, breaking to nearly 5 points below their earlier high levels.

The reaction was not associated with anything in the day's news, the few business and trade reports coming into hand being of a favorable nature. Coca Cola broke over ten points below yesterday's closing prices and DuPont, American Can, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, Radio, United Cigar, Commercial Solvents, B. Sloss, Sheffield and International Combustion Engineering were carried down 3 to 4 1-2 points. Short coverings brought about a rally in spots at the close. The closing was heavy. Sales approximated 1,000,000 shares.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE WILL START IN FEW DAYS

With the closing of the football season, the eyes of Vernon have been turned upon the basketball team and its possibilities in the interscholastic league this year. Work-outs will start within the next few days, according to Coach Wilemon. However, no game will be played before the Christmas holidays, the coach says.

Vernon has never gone very far in the league basketball race but fans are showing considerable interest in the prospects this year.

Coach Wilemon has only three of last year's seven letter men to build a team around this season. Crouch, Ryan and T. Kay, regulars of last year's squad, are expected to be the mainstays of the 1926 quintet. Crouch will captain the cagers.

Koontz, Lewis and E. Key, have indicated that they will try for the squad this season. This indicates that Wilemon's club will have a world of endurance this year, as every man that has spoke of trying for the caging quintet has been a veteran on the eleven this fall.

MOVEMENT OF COTTON WITHOUT DISINFECTATION IS FORBIDDEN

Washington, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Movement of cotton lint and linters out of El Paso and Chaves counties, New Mexico, without disinfection, was forbidden today by the Department of Agriculture as a result of the re-appearance of the pink boll worm in the region above Carlsbad, N. M.

The action was taken by the department in amending quarantine orders and it will apply also to regions in Texas where the pink boll worm has been found.

It forbids interstate movement of bales of cotton lint and linters grown in a regulated area where the boll worm has been found either in the present crop or in either of the two preceding crops unless the cotton is disinfected under department inspection. The only exception is in the case of baled cotton lint and linters which are moved interstate under permit from one regulated area to another for disinfection.

Dr. T. T. Roberts Addresses Vernon Lions At Meeting

The Lion's Club had as their guest at luncheon Friday Dr. T. T. Roberts, president of Randolph College, at Cisco. Dr. Roberts gave a most interesting and educational address on "Christian Development," expressing the view that ordinary education alone does not prevent or lessen the commission of crime. Some interesting figures on present day crimes were presented. Dr. Roberts stated that while the petty crimes, to a large extent, are committed by the uneducated, the greatest crimes of today are planned and committed by those highly educated. He said that not only education but a Christian development along with it was necessary to the welfare of our country, which he pointed out has the best educational facilities of any country, but also the highest record of crime. Dr. L. P. Kopp, formerly a member of the Vernon Lion's Club, was also a visitor, and stated that he wanted to retain his membership in the local club, as he had found no other club, in his travels, which he believed equalled the Vernon Club.

W. A. Franklin, principal of the Vernon High School, a former Lion, was introduced, and said he was moving his membership to Vernon. He expressed the appreciation of himself and Superintendent W. T. Lofland of the action of the Lion's Club in placing in all school buildings in Vernon a framed copy of "The Moral Code of Youth."

The club had a report on result of the "Old Clothes" drive conducted last Tuesday for the welfare association, and evidenced their hope that all citizens would cooperate with and contribute to the coming campaign of the welfare association for funds with which to "carry on" the coming year.

MINIATURE CITY BUILT BY BUSINESS MAN AS DIVERSION

Denver, Colo., Nov. 28.—(P)—A Denver man's diversion from the cares of his business has resulted in one of the major attractions along the city's mountain park drives.

From a modest beginning has grown Turner's "Tiny Town," a miniature village in Turkey Creek canyon, 30 miles from here. The town covers several acres, has electric lighted streets, a real railway system, a small steamship that plays on a miniature lake as well as smelters and mines on the hilly slopes and outlying ranches, dairy barns, silos and farmhouses.

The spire of the "cathedral" is on the level with the head of a six-foot man when standing erect; a child figuratively wears seven league boots when it strides about the streets; and the railway station makes a comfortable home for a small dog.

More than a decade ago George E. Turner felt he must have some outdoor diversion. He did not care for fishing, golf, hunting or hiking, so he seized upon the plan of building the "Tiny Town" across the road from his mountain summer home.
